From Raqueeb

<h2>For Hashu 💌</h2>

 Hashu,

I don't know if a webpage can ever explain everything someone feels, but I wanted to try.

I still remember that feeling of meeting you after a long time.
And that hug...
it's one of those moments that stays somewhere in your heart.

I don't need a perfect story.
I just want the real little moments – the laughs, the conversations, the memories, and those moments where simply being together feels enough.

Thank you for being a special part of my life.

And whenever you see this page,
I hope you remember one thing:

You are very, very special to me. ❤️
